CAREER HISTORY

- The Vale of Glamorgan Council
Young Onset Dementia Social Worker

September 2024 - July 2025

Key Duties:As a Social Worker in the Vale of Glamorgan Council, I support young onset dementia patients who need care and assistance to live independently and with dignity. My role involves assessing individuals' needs, developing care plans, and ensuring they receive the right support to achieve their personal goals. I work closely with service users, carers, and multidisciplinary teams, including health professionals and community organizations, to coordinate services that promote well-being.

A key part of my job is safeguarding vulnerable adults, ensuring they are protected from harm and abuse. I provide advice, advocacy, and practical assistance, empowering individuals to make informed choices about their care. I also collaborate with internal and external agencies to secure appropriate resources, whether that be home care, residential placements, or specialized interventions.

Case management is at the heart of my responsibilities, requiring me to maintain accurate records, review care plans regularly, and adapt support based on changing circumstances.

- SPRING HEALTH
MBACP Counselor

December 2024 - current

Key Duties: As a dedicated and passionate counselor with over three decades of experience in social work and counseling. My professional journey has been deeply rooted in empowering individuals, families, and communities, particularly through the lens of family therapy and the growth model. As a practitioner trained in the Satir Model of Family Therapy, I specialize in fostering self-awareness, resilience, and transformative growth in my clients. My academic foundation includes advanced degrees in counseling and social work, complemented by continuous professional development in solution-focused therapy and creative modalities like Pastel Nagomi Art. This combination of expertise and creativity enables me to approach each client with empathy, cultural sensitivity, and a commitment to their personal growth.
